OCCULAR DISEASE EXAM REVIEW

- May not be on the exam and something
  - 25 questions
- 25 questions from dr. Goodwin
- multiple choice

- pictures
- How would you treat it, diagnoses
- Which of the following prescription medi. is indicated to treat Demadex
- cranial nerves and which one can affect eyelid
- signs of bacterial eyelid infection
  - discharge (pus)
  - lashes (crust/flakes/madarosis/trichiasis)
  - lids (thickened, thickened, red)
  - blood vessels
  - what bacteria mainly cause blephoritis (staphylococcus)
  - treatment of blephoritis (warm compress)
  - corneal punctate epithelial erosion (PEE)

- Hallmark sign of Demodex blepharitis (collarettes)
- Demodex treatment drops (tea tree oil/4-terpinol, lotilaner)
  - more toxic
- what tear later is secreted by meibomian glands (lipid (oil))
  - skin condition associated with meibomianitis (Rosacea)
  - Main allergy symptom (ITCH)
  - Which contact derm. is located with ster.? (Allergic, Atopic, Eczema)
  - Topical ophthalmic drugs that may cause allergic contact dermatitis (neomycin, phenylephrine, certain glauc. dr.)
  - Which gland is affected in internal hordeolum (meibomian)
  - Other eyelid gland and what they secrete (Zeis, Moll, Sebaceous, Lacrimal (Water))
  - ORBITAL cellulitis signs: fever, pupil defect, limited eye movement, proptosis, swollen eyelid)
  - Treatment for ORBITAL CELLULITIS
  - Dacryoadenitis signs / causes
  - Dacryocystitis signs

- Different eyelash conditions
- Eyelash treatments (where will they grow back)
- Ectropion causes and how common they are (involutional, congenital ..)
- Different eyelid shape conditions (dermatochalasis, blepharoptosis), eyelid coloboma, epicanthus)
  - Eyelid moved pattern with each condition
    - ↳ Moving patterns of EYELID
  - Potential effects of ptosis on (vis. field, Amblyo)
  - Difference between blinking
  - Thyroid eye disease (TED)
    - ↳ Risk factors (smoking)
    - ↳ ocular signs
    - ↳ effected eye parts
  - Thyroid eye disease (TED) blood test results
    - Difference between malignant and benign tumor
      - Most common skin/eyelid cancer (basal cell carcinoma)

- Epiluminescence microscopy (hand-held tech
- Pedunculated (descripsion
- Umbilicated (—11—)
- Which skin lesions are caused by virus
- Sjogren's syndrom (dry mouth, dry eye, ...)
- clock's /